

Bio

Hudson Brothen Director

3500 American Blvd W - #200 | Minneapolis, MN 55431
Direct +1 952 893 8261
hudson.brothen@cushwake.com | cushmanwakefield.com

Professional Expertise

Hudson Brothen joined Cushman & Wakefield in 2009 and has since assumed a role as a member of the Minnesota Industrial Team which includes accomplished brokers Jon Yanta and Jason Meyer. He focuses most of his time on sale listing and working with clients to navigate buildings currently available in the market. Hudson uses his honesty and strong work ethic to provide in-depth service to all his clients. Hudson has a unique ability to find buyers, tenants, and new leads through cold-calling. Over 50% of each week is dedicated to talking with decision makers on the phone.

Clients Served

- Wiseway Transportation
- Glass Doctor
- Federal Package Network
- HDMG
- Servpro
- United Properties
- River Valley Church
- Creative Laminating
- J.B. O'Meara

Professional and Community Involvement

Hudson is on the Board of Directors with the Minnesota Commercial Association of Relators (MNCAR). He also coaches inner city youth basketball and is an instructor at local basketball camps.

Education, Memberships and Awards

- University of St. Thomas, Bachelor of Science in Real Estate
- Licensed Real Estate Salesperson in the state of Minnesota
- In 2013, Hudson received Cushman & Wakefield's Rising Star Award for someone who shows exceptional promise in the field of commercial real estate.
- Hudson was an individual and team recipient of the "Best and Busiest: Commercial Real Estate Brokers" award in the August 2014 issue of Twin Cities Business Magazine.
- In 2015, Hudson received MNCAR's Rising Star Award for someone who shows exceptional promise in the field of commercial real estate.